

CHEAKAMUS CENTRE

nature is in session

Dear friends of Cheakamus Centre,

To help reduce the risk of COVID-19 transmission and ensure the continued health, safety, and wellness of our user group community and staff, Cheakamus Centre has postponed all of our on-site programs, and private and community events until further notice. We will continue to assess the evolving situation and will provide regular updates here. Our booking staff will also be in touch to discuss the details of current bookings. If you have any further questions, please email communications@cheakamuscentre.ca

For an environmental and Indigenous learning centre that was established over five decades ago to bring people together to learn, gather and share in nature, this is an especially difficult time for our team. While our Cheakamus programming is temporarily suspended, our education team will continue to explore and design innovative ways to support our school partners in connecting learners with the natural world. Our sincere thanks to all of our students, teachers, parents, staff, volunteers, and Friends of Cheakamus for your continued support, and for all that you are doing in your home communities to help each other stay safe and healthy.

We look forward to welcoming you back as soon as we are able to safely re-open our campus.

For more information on COVID-19, please click here.

Sincerely,

Cheakamus Centre