Overnight Retreats at Cheakamus Centre

A bit of background on Cheakamus Centre ...

Cheakamus Centre is situated on 165 hectares (420 acres) of designated ecological reserve land in Paradise Valley, Brackendale, BC. This diverse biological landscape is just minutes from the Sea to Sky highway and includes old growth forests, wild salmon streams and amphibian ponds. The property is an essential habitat site for bald eagles and pacific salmon and contains the largest recorded concentration of wintering bald eagles in North America. The Dave Marshall Salmon Reserve, also on this property, is the centre of federally designated habitat and spawning channels for five species of pacific salmon.

Venues and Accommodation

The centre can accommodate groups of up to 135 people in a beautiful forest setting.

- 9 heated rustic cabins with bunk beds and shared bathrooms
- 2 meeting rooms to accommodate up to 128 each; break-out meeting spaces of various sizes
- 2 Covered Campfire shelters and an outdoor amphitheatre
- Sports field, basketball court and canoe pond
- Challenge Course
- Nature walking trails, caves and 1000 year old cedar trees

We look forward to having the opportunity of welcoming you and your associates to learn, work and play in nature's classroom.

Add to your Retreat!

- Turn your evening into a social with a selection of local BC wine & beer and house made canapés.
- Create an experience for your team members. Ask us about adding a traditional Coast Salish welcoming ceremony or program led experiential add on.
